

Global Agility & International Mindset

agenda

09.30 | 10.00 _ registration

10.00 | 11.30 _ what is Global Agility and why is it a key skill to thrive in today's workplace? Experimental simulation: Meeting the Morenians - how do I build trust with new partners across cultures to achieve my goals

11.30 | 11.45 _ short break

11.45 | 13.00 _ Multicultural Team Leadership (video case): how do I react to different cultural styles? How can I build understanding and foster collaboration in remote multicultural teams?

13.00 | 14.00 _ light lunch

14.00 | 15.45 _ 5 Chairs; 5 Choices: a powerful mind tool – How can I expand my options when I face tough challenges in unfamiliar cultures? How can I add cultural intelligence to my emotional intelligence to get results from a multicultural workforce?

15.45 | 17.15 _ The Global Leadership Challenge (video case): How can I apply the 5 Chairs approach to real life decisions which global leaders face? What would I do here and how can I ensure local colleagues make sense of and commit to my decisions?

Global Leadership Imagination: What three perspectives do global leaders need to take when making tough decisions in an unfamiliar cultural context?

17.15 | 17.30 _ wrap up & closing

trainers | Louise Evans and David Trickey

Louise Evans is the author of 5 Chairs 5 Choices (published 2016) and has 30 years of experience working as a global executive coach and leadership team facilitator with major international organisations such as Gucci, Whirlpool, Enel, Ferrero, FCA, Diesel and Manpower. She has helped thousands of people from over 60 countries grow transform and excel in their personal as well as professional lives. Her passion is to help people ask the questions they may never have asked themselves before to help them reach their highest potential.

David Trickey is co-author of Managing Challenges across Cultures (Published 2015) and the DVD a case for global leadership: the Kai Bendix Story (WorldWork, 2011). He has delivered global leadership programmes for over 100 leading multinationals and Executive MBA courses in Italy, UK, USA, Belgium and Austria. He enjoys working with leaders on the challenges of building trust, integrating teams and transforming organisations through large scale behaviour change in over 40 countries.